

"No! no! no! I still don't have the right dress to wear to Kendra's birthday party!" "I must be the star of the show," shouted Stefanie. "Stefanie", "Stefanie" Stefanie's mother, Mrs. Dish called from the hallway. "Come in!" replied Stefanie. "We all know your worst friend that's really not your friend is Nancy, known as Victoria Silk. But, I just found out something!... that our family has magic powers. Well, I don't, but you do!". I do?"

Stephanie thought, "But, that can't be true. Or is it?" "You just open all of your five fingers and say something," said Mrs. Dish. "Ok I'll try it," said Stefanie happily. Stefanie pointed to the walls with all 5 fingers "Now, give me a halloween poster!" First, they saw a flash of blue glitter and then poof! A halloween poster with pumpkins came up. "Wow," shouted Stefanie. "Now get ready for school!" replied Mrs. Dish.

A little while later. "Mic! Come on let's get our snack before school starts" "All right!" replied Mic. After they ate their snack, they went off to school. "I am going to be late!" said Nancy (known as Victoria) RING went the bell as nancy zoomed to class. Nancy soon worked on her double multiplication. As she was done, she heard the lunch bell ring. She said, "Oh, got to get my lunch!" "Hi! Nancy," said Elsa and Juliet as they were taking their lunch boxes from the tub. "Hi! Elsa and Juliet. Where's Anna, Lila and Millie?" replied Nancy. "They're already in the lunch room," replied Elsa. As the three girls walked along the hall to the lunch room, they met up with Stefanie Dish. "Well, well, well. If it isn't Nancy Silk?" said Stefanie rudely. "Yeah, you should sign up for the ugly girls contest!" said Diamond, one of Stefanie's friends. "Ignore them Juliet," said Nancy. When they finally reached the lunch room, they found Anna, Millie, and Lila sitting and talking about school stuff. "Hi! Nancy, Elsa, and Juliet! Do you want to come and sit with us?" asked Anna. "Always," said Nancy, Elsa and Juliet.

As soon as lunch was over, they went back to their classroom. It was reading time as normal and then Math. When school was over, they all went back to their own homes. At Nancy's home, Nancy thought, Hmm. Where is that tooth paste? "Oh yeah, it's on the table. Wait a minute, why is that picture on this table?" said Nancy. Nancy took the picture off the table. "Oh yeah, the tooth paste!" shouted Nancy and a few seconds later she heard a loud poof! "What! AHHHH," Nancy screamed and ran to her room as fast as she could. When she got there, her little brother and sister were staring at her. "What?" said Nancy. "Our sister's a super hero!" said Nancy's little brother Sam. "No, she is a princess!" shouted Ally, Nancy's little sister. BOOM! All of a sudden, a goblin came in the room. "What's going on?" said Nancy's mom and dad. "AHH!" screamed Mr. and Mrs. Silk before they both fainted. "Get away from my family!" yelled Nancy and the goblin POOFED away. "What was that?" asked Nancy as soon as her mom and dad woke up. Then they decided to take Nancy to the hospital just to be safe.

"What is this doctor?" asked Mrs. Silk. "AHH!" said the doctor. They took Nancy back home "Just go to sleep," said her dad so she did.

The next day she was back to normal and she invited all five of her friends to her house. "Really?" said Millie, "That's a weird thing that happened to you." "Ha ha," said Juliet. "You did?" asked Lila. "Yes I did," said Nancy. "We have to tell you the truth now," said Anna. "I am an elf," said Anna. "I am too," said Elsa. "I am a mermaid," said Lila and Millie. "I am a fairy," said Juliet. "I think I am a fairy too!" shouted Nancy. "We think Stefanie has powers too," said Millie. "Let's just call this Kendra's party right now," said Lila. "Come on girls," said Nancy, but let's go to the swimming pool part of her party first," suggested the mermaids.

"Hey, that's where Stefanie is," shouted Juliet, "at Kendra's party..." "OK, are we all transformed?" asked Nancy. "We are but you aren't," said Millie. "OK, I will try," replied Nancy, "Nancy become a fairy!" And before she knew it, she had wings! "Come on girls," shouted Nancy. Ah, yes, a perfect day to be queen, thought Stefanie. "Now my army of my friends will rule the day!" yelled Stefanie. "Not if we are here," screamed a fairy. "Who are you? What? There are a lot of you! Like billions of you!" shouted Stefanie. "We are here too!" said Lila and Millie. "Us too," said Elsa and Anna. "And us too" shouted Nancy and Juliet. "Not for long!" shouted Stefanie.

"Who are you?" asked Stephanie, "Your sister said a fairy." "What?" replied Nancy, "But the only sister I have is Ally. You will have to find out later!"

"Darkness rise" shouted Stefanie calling for her magic power. "Magic elf fairy dust," said Anna and Elsa as they called for their magic power. "What? That was my best spell!" cried Stefanie, "And now you just ruined it!" "Please say it with me so we get more....Darkness Rise," shouted Stefanie. "Mermaids shell" shouted Lila with an equally powerful magic. "Hey! super sports," said Juliet. "That's it, you've crossed the line. Super darkness!" shouted Stefanie's friends with her. "Ok, it's dark and we need to use all of our powers together,” said one fairy. Just then, the fairies, mermaids and elves shouted out together, “Whoosh!” and Stefanie lost all of her powers for a month! “AHH!” shouted Stefanie.

When Stefanie was finally just sitting, Stefanie asked again, “Who are you?” “We are the fairies of a new place in a kingdom,” said the fairies, “We are fairies of all kinds of things, all magic, all animals and all sorts of powers.” “Really?” asked Nancy. “Yes, and our lost sister Victoria, also known as Nancy, has gone missing.” said the fairies sadly. “Well, I think that I am sort of the girl you talked about,” said Nancy. “Really?” asked Luna, “Well... what’s your name?” “My fairy name is Luna and these are my sisters and my friends. My most powerful sister has her name on her crown,” said Luna. “Now, let’s have some fun!” said a voice. Nancy heard the voice. it was Kendra! “We will be going now,” said one of the fairies. “Wait!” called Kendra, “You girls can stay!” “Thank you,” shouted Luna. They went back to Kendra’s party at her house and had a good time.
